for service as set forth in the following

"For heroic achievement while serving with friendly foreign forces engaged in armed conflict against the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong communist aggressors in the Republic of Vietnam on 26 November 1968. Petty Officer SIMMONS was attached to the FOURTH Platoon, United States Navy SEAL Team, Detachment ALFA, participating in a mission into enemy controlled territory in Kien Giang Province. Volunteering to leave the security of a wooded area in which his fellow squad members were concealed, Petty Officer SIMMONS and one companion moved into an open rice paddy in full view of a heavily defended enemy stronghold in order to attempt the capture of a Viet Cong suspect. When they had approached to within twenty meters of their quarry, the Viet Cong suspect turned and raised his rifle. Reacting instantly, Petty Officer SIMMONS together with his fellow SEAL took the enemy under fire killing him. Almost immediately thereafter, heavy enemy fire from small arms and fifty caliber machine gun emplacements enveloped their position. Despite his exposure to this intense volume of enemy fire, he assisted his teammate in retrieving the weapon and ammunition from the dead Viet Cong. Petty Officer SIMMONS' courage under fire and devotion to duty were in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service."

Petty Officer SIMMONS is authorized to wear the Combat "V".

CITATION:

For outstanding meritorious service as Commanding Officer of Sea, Air and Land (SEAL) Team FIVE from August 1991 through August 1993. Commander Simmons performed his duties in an exemplary and highly professional manner. Displaying bold leadership, operational acumen, and extraordinary resourcefulness, SEAL Team FIVE reached new heights of warfighting readiness. The only SEAL command to successfully train, equip, and deploy eight platoons simultaneously, he personally led his men on six highly successful major exercises of FOAL EAGLE 91 and 92, ULCHI FOCUS LENS 92, TEAM SPIRIT 93, JRTC 92-4, and 93-4 that drew widespread acclaim for Naval Special Warfare. His innovations in Arctic terrain warfare, urban warfare, foreign internal defense training, and extensive integration with Korean Special Warfare counterparts has produced a far reaching positive impact on the operational readiness of SEAL Team FIVE. Commander Simmons' outstanding professionalism, sound initiative, and unrelenting devotion to duty reflected great credit upon himself and were in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service.

CITATION:

For outstanding meritorious service while serving as Executive Officer at Naval Special Warfare Center, San Diego, California from December 1988 to June 1991. Commander Simmons performed his demanding duties in an exemplary and highly professional manner. Demonstrating dynamic leadership, skillful management, and exceptional resourcefulness, he executed with total success a training philosophy that stressed "train smarter not harder." His personal involvement in every aspect of the command directly resulted in lower attrition and increased quality, in all courses. Despite the associated problems with high visibility and limited resources, Commander Simmons worked with diligence and focus to support the national objective to revitalize Special Operations Forces. In addition, he was the catalyst for the development of twenty advanced courses and directed major improvements in Naval Special Warfare doctrine. By his superb professionalism, effectiveness, and total devotion to duty, Commander Simmons reflected great credit upon himself and upheld the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service.

"For outstanding meritorious service as Naval Special Warfare Officer, Staff, Commander Naval Surface Force, U. S. Pacific Fleet from December 1987 to December 1988. Lieutenant Commander SIMMONS performed his duties in an exemplary and highly professional manner. He expertly provided extensive and vital planning and execution of Naval Special Warfare operations in the Arabian Gulf in support of operation "EARNEST WILL." He revised Commander Naval Surface Force, U. S. Pacific Fleet Operation Order 201, drafted and reviewed Memorandums of Agreement and instructions in view of Secretary of Defense directed changes in Operational Control and Air Defense Control of Naval Special Warfare forces. He skillfully supervised and managed three Focal Point Systems, involving Department of Defense and other activities jointly coordinating with the staff concerning Naval Special Warfare, Mine Warfare, and Explosive Ordnance matters. His professional knowledge and untiring efforts during a review of Naval Special Warfare training and readiness coupled with a comprehensive revision of Naval Warfare Publication 15-1 were vital to increased readiness of Naval Special Warfare Pacific Forces. Lieutenant Commander SIMMONS' professionalism and devotion to duty reflected great credit upon himself and were in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service."
